

Eugene A. De Angelis

ATTORNEY

Phone: 216-642-3342

Email: eadeangelis@wegmanlaw.com

An attorney who understands business and finance, Gene De Angelis assists clients in navigating the possibilities and pitfalls of a multitude of transactions. In his legal practice, he aims to help clients achieve their goals in a way that addresses current needs while paying special attention to potential issues down the road. He works with clients to reach legal solutions and frameworks that encompass practical concerns. This is accomplished by understanding their operational, financial and organizational situation, then providing advice tailored to their unique needs. Gene has also worked as a technology consultant and a financial reporting analyst for a division of a Fortune 100 tech company. He has experience with a variety of legal matters including corporate law, public and private finance, commercial transactions, and corporate governance.

Professional Experience

Gene De Angelis is part of the business services group at Wegman Hessler Valore. He previously worked in the business group of BakerHostetler and at Squire Patton Boggs. Gene began practicing law in the Chicago office of Skadden Arps, where he was an associate in their corporate finance group.

His practice focuses on new business formation, public and private finance, and commercial transactions.

Practice Areas

- Corporate and Business

Admissions

- State of Ohio

Memberships/Honors/Awards

- Judicial extern for the Hon. Judge Amy St. Eve
- Cabrini Green Legal Aid community services legal volunteer
- Emphasis on corporate finance and governance
- Order of the Coif

Education

- Harvard College, A.B. in Applied Mathematics, magna cum laude, 1998
- Northwestern School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2004