Christopher T. Cheh assists individuals and families in wealth transfer planning through the creation of wills, living trusts, and irrevocable trusts, while implementing strategies to protect assets and maximize wealth preservation. A Northeast Ohio native and Cleveland-Marshall College of Law graduate, he also served as an associate at a small Cleveland law firm.

Professional Experience

With over a decade of experience in trust and estate law, Christopher T. Cheh has established a strong practice focusing on complex estate planning, trust administration, and tax matters. Previously with firms in the Cleveland area, Cheh has managed multi-million-dollar estates while providing comprehensive counsel on probate administration, estate planning, and trust litigation.

His expertise includes:

- Estate and trust administration
- Complex tax planning and resolution
- Business succession planning
- Asset protection strategies
- Probate litigation

Beyond legal practice, Cheh demonstrates a commitment to community service through his volunteer work, teaching constitutional literacy in Cleveland area schools.
